

September 2026 Newsletter

Taubman Museum Tour, October 2

We will tour the Taubman Museum together on Friday October 2 at 12 noon, with lunch together at a downtown restaurant. An exhibit of "George Washington at Yorktown" is being featured. Contact Jim Privitera at roanokepottery@gmail.com or 540-797-4010 to participate.

October Dinner Meeting, Monday October 12

We will meet for a dinner meeting at Rimini's on Monday evening October 12 beginning at 5 pm. To reserve your seat, contact Jim Privitera (540-797-4010 or roanokepottery@gmail.com) by October 8.

Luncheon in Christiansburg

Eleven club members and five friends of members met for lunch at Sandro's Italian Restaurant and Pizzeria in Christiansburg on August 31. We were pleased to meet Robin Scarola, Bill and Jenny Strollo, Jim Kilroy, and Marla Kemsey.

September 13 Business Meeting, Salem Senior Center,

Nineteen club members and friends met on Sunday September 13 at the Salem Senior Center to conduct our fall business meeting. We agreed to meet at Rimini's on Monday October 12 and at the Salem Senior Center on November 8.

Christmas Holiday party will be on Monday December 21 at Montano's; cash bar beginning at 5 pm. We will collect Christmas party payments in advance, at the November dinner meeting; cost will be announced later.

We will tour the Taubman Museum together on Friday October 2 at 12 noon.

Michael Sollicito entertained us with a medley of Dean Martin songs. Many thanks to Tim Andriano for preparing the dinner main dish of stuffed shells and for all who brought side dishes.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Shirl Lamanca, Pauline Corso, Jean Toti, and Amy Miller celebrated birthdays in September. Anna Hoffman will celebrate a birthday in October. Helem Colosimo & Matthew, and Joanna Colosimo & Christopher celebrated anniversaries in September. Bob and Nancy Canova will celebrate an anniversary in October.

Italian Language Class

The Italian Language class that meets every Tuesday will not meet from September 27 through October 27. The November 3 class (Election Day) will meet at the home of Donna Esposito, 1743 Earl Drive, Salem.

